The theme of 2020 edition will be "Autari: wars, people, religions" and it will be focused on Autari's reign, during which takes place the true birth of Longobards Reign through wars, clashes and shuffles of various people, religious clashes and much more. The eight edition of the reenactment will be back at the Fipsas lakes of Romans d'Isonzo, the most characteristic place for a manifestation of this kind. It will be present: an historical area which will host the camps and living history activities of many reenactment groups from various Italian and European regions (Hungary, Austria, Germany, Spain, Bulgaria); a conference area suitable for disclosure historical hosted by important speakers and experts of the historical period, with the presence of dr. Nicola Bergamo, of dr. Angelo Floramo and dr. Roberto Tirelli; an area for the fighting shows; an area for the great live show of the power metal band "Elvenking" of Saturday evening; a well-stocked dining area; an area for the artistic displays; an historical market and a didactic area for children and boys alike.

Following the medical emergency we are living the historical reenactment will change dates from the past years and it's postponed to October month.

Romans Langobardorum present itself as the biggest Lombards historical reenactment on the Italian territory, with the objective of becoming a reference point also in the European contest. Given the importance of this cultural event for the historical enhancement of our territory, it is our commitment to try to keep it alive and to achieve it despite the many difficulties that this 2020 is bringing us. We are the heirs of an important historical past, it is our task and commitment to enhance it and make it usable for present and future generations through all the tools available to us.

The other important news of the year is adhesion to the regional project "ECOFESTA" in order to give our contribution to the fundamental commitment of respect and preservation of surrounding ambient, respecting and curing it with concrete actions.

This manifestation wants to add itself to the other activities focused to enhance and valorize the Longobard past of Romans d'Isonzo, including, but not only, the "Archaeological Civic Museum" and the archaeological park created near the Longobards necropolis discovered during 1986, place where "Invicti Lupi" association keeps the guided tours with tourist and schools.

We give you an appointment from Friday 16th to Sunday 18st October, the complete program will be available soon. The reenactment will take place with every weather condition.
